Overview

1. In order to enhance the academic, cultural, and social career of students in Kuwait and abroad, College of Business Administration (CBA) has a well-established Student Exchange Program (SEP) in 2006.
2. The program was approved as a concept on December 16th, 2007, by the Higher Board of Kuwait University.
3. The program was activated in March 31st, 2008, upon the approval of the Minister of Higher Education.

CBA had earned its' initial academic accreditation in 2005 by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB).

CBA is considered to be the top Arabian Institution that started to implement the Students Exchange Program in the Arab Region. However, College of Business Administration (CBA), Kuwait University, is the only Kuwaiti Institution that send student to accredited business schools all over the globe.
